Respectfully returned to

Mr. J. D. Steward,
Havana, Ark.

The records show that one Jacob Presnel (surname also found as Presnell) served in the Confederate States Army as a private, Company A, 2nd Arkansas Mounted Rifles. He enlisted February 14, 1862, at Contonment Bee, and on the muster roll for May and June, 1862, the last roll of the company on which his name is borne, he was reported absent sick. No further record found.

The records also show that one Jacob Presnell served in the Confederate States Army as a private, Company K, Gordon's Regiment, also called 1st, 2nd, 9th and 11th Arkansas Cavalry. He enlisted July 7, 1862, at Roseville, and on the muster roll for September and Oct., 1863, the last roll of the company on which his name is borne, he was reported absent without leave from September 3, 1863. No further record found.

The stamped envelope received with this letter is herewith returned.
